The Connétable welcomed those present and drew attention to the emergency exits at the front and rear of the hall.

The Parish Secretary read the convening notice the Electoral Assembly.

No apologies had been received before the meeting. The Connétable invited apologies from the floor, of which there were none.

The Connétable invited nominations for the office of Centenier, as Centenier Robert Hall's term of office was shortly to expire.

Mr Brian Follain addressed the meeting to propose Robert Hall for a further term of office. He read the nomination form and handed it to the Parish Secretary.

His nomination form included the following:

Proposer: Brian Follain

Seconders: Keneth W M Syvret, Martin Norman Le Maistre, Basil Carre, Ursula Dingle, Michale Paddock, Jennifer Gare, Lorna Corfield, Doug Richardson, Alison Batho

Mr Follain informed the Assembly that he had pleasure in proposing Mr Hall for the role. He said Mr Hall was professional and dedicated to the task, was of great intellect and bearing and had the respect of parishioners. The Connétable congratulated Robert Hall on his re-election for a further term. He added that the Parish was lucky to have Centenier Hall and thanked him for his tireless efforts and dedication.

The Connétable invited Centenier Hall to say a few words. He took the floor and thanked his proposer and seconders and said he was fortunate to have such a great team to work with. Centenier Hall reserved special praise for the former Parish Secretary, Alison Batho, for all her support during her time as Parish Secretary.
